

John McClintock - Agricultural economist– Curriculum vitae

Director, ACTION for Food Reserves, (non-governmental organisation promoting food security)

Website: www.action-for-food-reserves.org

Books:

1. The fight against food shortages and surpluses. CABI, Wallingford, UK. October 2020
2. The uniting of nations: an essay on global governance. Peter Lang, Brussels. 3rd edition, 2010

Email address: john.mcclintock@action-for-food-reserves.org

Home address: Brussels, Belgium

Born: 18 August 1954, Manchester. UK

School: St Edmunds School, Canterbury, Kent, UK

Universities: Reading: BSc, agriculture.

Oxford (Wadham): MSc, agricultural economics.

Ecole Nationale Supérieure Agronomique de Montpellier, DAA.

Employment: 1979 – 1981 Government of Malawi and Overseas Development Institute (UK)

1983 – 1985 International Livestock Centre for Africa, Oxfam famine camp, Ethiopia

1985 – 1988 Centre for Agricultural Strategy, University of Reading, UK

1989 – 1990 McNamara Fellow (World Bank) in Senegal

1991 – 1992 EU commission (DG AGRI), Brussels

1992 – 1996 EU delegation in Sierra Leone, management of aid

1996 – 2000 EU delegation in Poland, preparations for EU accession

2000 – 2017 EU Commission in Brussels, working on the common agricultural policy, particularly communication with farmers and citizens.

2017 to date: Lecturer at business school IHEDREA, Paris, giving a course on European affairs and the common agricultural policy.